INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

- Community Partnerships – Polly Binns and Laura Hannan, Fair Hill Nature Center
The Fair Hill Nature Center discussed building partnerships. They are working to be as involved in the community as possible. Their focus is on summer camps, programs for school aged children, a garden at the Cecil County Public Library as well as fundraising and meeting the needs of the community. They host Eagle Scout Troop 302 to assist with their projects. Fair Hill Nature Center has also published a book, A Winter's Tail.
- Friends of Cecil County Parks and Recreation Update – Thomas McFadden
The Friends continue to work on the Brantwood Blooms project which was made possible through the 2021 Sustainable Communities Grant. A Brantwood Blooms community outreach meeting was held via zoom on 1/20. There will be 3 planting areas with 8 zones of interest. Elk Neck, Gilpin Manor and Thompson Estates Elementary school will be assisting with the planting. The Cecil County Public Library will also be assisting. There will be 20 to 30 trees planted. The Cecil Springs event will be held on 4/23. A 5k will kick off the event. There will be there will be non-profit groups, vendors, yoga, and games.
